DŌAAB India Craft Whisky clinches Best Indian Single Malt Award at AMBROSIA AWARDS 2025 & triumphs at the WORLD WHISKIES AWARDS 2025

New Delhi, March 26, 2025 – DŌAAB India Craft Whisky has claimed the coveted title of BEST INDIAN SINGLE MALT at the prestigious AMBROSIA AWARDS 2025, setting a new benchmark in India's whisky evolution. DŌAAB India Craft Whisky has also secured a prestigious win at the WORLD WHISKIES AWARDS 2025 in London. This accolade in the highly competitive Single Malt category underscores DŌAAB's commitment to pushing the boundaries of whisky craftsmanship, blending heritage with innovation to redefine the whisky experience. The award-winning 01 Six Blind Men and the Elephant, a masterful expression of craftsmanship, embodies the essence of exploration, curiosity, and innovation.

Aged meticulously in 100% ex-bourbon barrels, this limited-edition single malt harmonizes tradition with modernity, offering a sophisticated whisky experience that captivates discerning connoisseurs. With only 500 exclusive casks, it is a rare and remarkable tribute to India's rich heritage, redefined for the new-age whisky lover.

The AMBROSIA AWARDS & WORLD WHISKIES AWARDS 2025, known for their rigorous selection process, recognize the finest in the industry, with an esteemed jury comprising master blenders, design visionaries, and leading spirits experts. This accolade cements DŌAAB's stature as a trailblazer in India's whisky revolution, standing shoulder to shoulder with the best on the global stage.

“Winning Best Indian Single Malt & getting recognized in a global stage is a powerful validation of our unwavering commitment to excellence. DŌAAB is not just about preserving tradition—it's about reimagining whisky for today's bold, discerning Indian who is ready to break out of the mould. The awards are a celebration of our relentless pursuit of quality, innovation, and craftsmanship,” said Shekhar Swarup, Joint Managing Director, Globus Spirits Ltd.
